JoyWYancy (aka Destaisjoy)

authorjoylynn08

Joy W. Yancy, a scrupulous note-taker with an ear for excellence, started an email ministry by providing synopses of other's work. After a journey with depression, her email ministry served as the launchpad for her career as an author. Challenged to be transparent, she shared her testimony from depression to deliverance.

She now uses her thought-provoking devotions and social media broadcast to encourage others to move forward and do what God is calling them to do. Rev. Joy has been spreading the gospel via The Word e-mail devotional for over fifteen years. In her devotional, Moving Forward: Daily Devotions for the Journey, she provides encouragement to the reader on their journey through life. Her Lent devotional, Journey to SonRise, encourages others to example their life after Christ.

ANGELIQUE GRAY

Creative Designer

Making things beautiful is what I love. I'm fascinated with Colors, Scale & Visual Art. I have been designing for years, but it was after numerous requests from family and friends that I ventured out and established AngeliQ Creations officially in 2009.

I am skilled in graphic design with a passion for staging and event design. I am inspired by beautiful things and love to make people smile.

In the same fashion as the company, it was after numerous requests that my passion for visual art was revitalized. New to the company are Paint Parties & Visual Art - I lead private paint parties on-site for intimate to large groups in the greater Memphis Area as well as painting commissioned art.
